

Eric De Keuleneer
Avenue des Phalènes 28
1000 BRUXELLES
edk@credi.be – www.dekeuleneer.com
02/234.35.11

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name : Eric DE KEULENEER
Born : Brussels (Belgium), on 10/4/1952

Married, two children

University Degrees

- Commercial Engineer (Solvay), Free University of Brussels 1974
- Master of Business Administration, Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania 1977

Business

- from 1977 to 1983 : Kredietbank S.A. Luxembourgeoise (now KBC)
Head of Syndication and trading (1981-1983)
- from 1983 to 1995 : Generale Bank, Brussels (now Fortis Bank)
Head of Corporate Finance and New Issues, then Corporate, then Head of Corporate and Investment Banking
- 1995 to date : - Chief Executive Officer of OCCH, Brussels (Office Central de Crédit Hypothécaire; state owned bank), since 2001 renamed Credibe
- Executive Director of "University Foundation", since April 2001.

Languages

- French : mother tongue
- Dutch, English and Spanish : fluent
- German and Portuguese : good knowledge

Varia

- Teaching :
 - Solvay School of Economics, Free University of Brussels : Banking and risk management. Financial regulation
 - Solvay Business School - Master in Management in Vietnam
Banking in a market economy (Hanoi and HCMC)
- Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Belgium's Cinema Archives and Museum
- Vice Chairman, WWF Belgium
- Member of the supervisory board, Belgian Commission for Banking, Finance and Insurance.
- Member of the board: Mobistar, Leasinvest Real Estate (listed companies), Amonis (Pension Fund Management Company), Mediafin, Keytrade Bank, various non profit associations.
- Various publications concerning capital markets, and corporate governance.
Books : "l'autonomie bien contrôlée" – 1997.
Collective books : « L'entreprise surveillée » Bruylant 2003 ; Liber Amicorum
Guy Keutgen, Bruylant 2008 ; « Mondialiser le travail décent » Luc Pire 2008 ; « Rénover la Gauche en Europe », Luc Pire 2008.